"The International Annual Symposium has provided new knowledge, intellectual stimulation, and, above all, camaraderie and life-long friendships."
- Helen N., USA -

"Die (IASWG) ermöglicht es, Kontakte zu Groupworkern in aller Welt zu bekommen. Es begeistert mich zu erleben, wie viel wir in unserer Liebe zum Arbeiten mit Gruppen gemeinsam haben.

"(IASWG) facilitates connections with group workers around the world. It is inspiring to see how much we have in common in our love for working with groups."

What is IASWG?

The International Association for the Advancement of Social Work with Groups (IASWG), is a not for profit international professional organization of group workers, group work educators, and friends of group work.

What do we do?

- Practice group work
- Teach group work
- Research group work
- Advocate for group work and the teaching of group work
- Sponsor yearly international symposia on group work
- Support and provide programming and networking opportunities at the local/chapter level
- Provide group work training opportunities
- Collaborate with other group work organizations
- Support the journal, Social Work with Groups

If you want to have a voice in a democratic, grassroots professional organization, IASWG is the place for you. Please join us!

Reasons to Join IASWG:

- Prevent the isolation felt by many social workers who practice group work, by building relationships with peers and mentors from all over the world
- Share your ideas and successes in group work so that others can learn from you and vice versa
- Make connections with fellow group work practitioners, professors, authors, and scholars locally and internationally
- Access online resources for teaching group work classes, for addressing group work practice dilemmas, and for students preparing for professional presentations or professional work after graduation
- Attend international symposia and local conferences at a reduced rate
