

The Ontario Groupwork Chapter (OGC) of the International Association for Social Work with Groups (IASWG) invites you

Navigating Hard Moments in Groups:

A mutual support discussion for groupworkers

November 21st from 11am-1pm (EST) online via Zoom

Are you looking for support on navigating challenging moments in group? Common issues might be:

- Disagreements between group members
- Attendance or participation issues
- Challenging behaviours

Join us for an informal, facilitated discussion! This is a great chance to:

- Offer and receive support from others around difficult moments in group
- Meet and connect with other groupworkers

Please contact toronto.groups@gmail.com
if you have any questions

We would love to hear from you! Please bring some of your own examples of difficult moments you are facing or have faced in the past.

Chances are, someone else is dealing with or has dealt with it. The more input we receive, the more relevant and helpful the discussion can be.
